

Our Family's Adventure

Anchored in Christ

January 2017

Our Family's

Begin devotion time by lighting a candle to remind your family that God is there with you. OR, have your family come up with your own way to start out devotion time.

Adventure

Split your family into pairs. In those pairs, one person is going to be blindfolded. The other person is going to think of a room or object in the house and guide the person that is blindfolded to that room or object. This activity is all about trust. The person that is blindfolded must trust that the person guiding them will keep them from running into walls or tripping over objects on the floor. Sometimes our trust in God is like that. We don't know where God is leading us, but we must trust that God will not turn us the wrong way.

Anchored

Read Psalms 40:1-5 and discuss:

- What is something exciting that happened to you in 2016?
- What are you looking forward to the most about 2017?
- What do you think God have planned for you in 2017?
- What makes it easy or difficult to trust in God?

In Christ

Close in Prayer: Pray your own prayer, or use this one:

Dear God, you never said it was going to be easy. You simply said, "Trust me." My faith is strong and I give myself to you. I will live this life with gratitude. Appreciating every little thing; it's difficulties and it's pleasures. For this and more, I am grateful. In your name we pray. Amen.

Our Family's Adventure Anchored in Christ is a resource designed to be used in community. "Our family" can be a small group at church, part of WELCA Bible Studies, or used in the home - there are so many options! Our hope is that this resource might be a blessing in your faith walk. We'd love to hear your feedback on how your congregation is using this resource! Metigoshe Ministries

Our Family's Adventure

Anchored in Christ

January 2017

Our Family's

Begin devotion time by lighting a candle to remind your family that God is there with you. OR, have your family come up with your own way to start out devotion time.

Adventure

Split your family into pairs. In those pairs, one person is going to be blindfolded. The other person is going to think of a room or object in the house and guide the person that is blindfolded to that room or object. This activity is all about trust. The person that is blindfolded must trust that the person guiding them will keep them from running into walls or tripping over objects on the floor. Sometimes our trust in God is like that. We don't know where God is leading us, but we must trust that God will not turn us the wrong way.

Anchored

Read Psalms 40:1-5 and discuss:

- What is something exciting that happened to you in 2016?
- What are you looking forward to the most about 2017?
- What do you think God have planned for you in 2017?
- What makes it easy or difficult to trust in God?

In Christ

Close in Prayer: Pray your own prayer, or use this one:

Dear God, you never said it was going to be easy. You simply said, "Trust me." My faith is strong and I give myself to you. I will live this life with gratitude. Appreciating every little thing; it's difficulties and it's pleasures. For this and more, I am grateful. In your name we pray. Amen.

Our Family's Adventure Anchored in Christ is a resource designed to be used in community. "Our family" can be a small group at church, part of WELCA Bible Studies, or used in the home - there are so many options! Our hope is that this resource might be a blessing in your faith walk. We'd love to hear your feedback on how your congregation is using this resource! Metigoshe Ministries